RULES AND REGULATIONS - Please read over carefully!

Selection Criteria: To avoid multiple vendors with duplicate merchandise, applications will be reviewed for Festival appropriateness and quality in the order in which they are received.

Booth Fee: Your booth fee MUST accompany your application. Upon approval of your application, notification will be sent out by email or postal mail. If your application is accepted your check will be deposited within two weeks of notification. If you are on a waitlist your fees will be held until a final decision is made.

Booth: Vendors are responsible for providing their own equipment and signage. Booth locations are non-negotiable. All space assignments are final. No booth size and/or location modifications will be accepted.

Clean-Up: Vendors are responsible for cleaning up their booth and service area. Dumpsters are provided for trash and recyclable materials, but vendors are responsible for providing and maintaining their own separate trash and compostable containers.

Set-Up: Set up time is 7 AM to 10 AM Saturday, July 11th. Check in with event staff at the Information Booth with your booth number. You will be allowed to drive one vehicle to your booth to set-up and unload. Your vehicle must be removed from the site immediately thereafter. Generators are NOT allowed. Booths will be inspected prior to opening of event.

Take-Down: All items must be completely removed from the event site by 7 PM Sunday, July 12th. No take down will be allowed before closing. *All vendors must remain open during all festival hours of operation-Saturday, 11 AM to 6 PM & Sunday, 11 AM to 6 PM. *Closing early will result in a full loss of your damage deposit.

Parking: There is a limited amount of parking. Vendors who have purchased a parking ticket in advance on a first-come first served basis may park at a designated parking lot near the event site. Parking passes will be sent out with your vendor confirmation packet.

Security: 24-hour security is provided on July 11th & 12th. However, the festival grounds are large and security cannot be everywhere all night. Your booth and merchandise must be YOUR RESPONSIBILITY. The Chinatown-International District Business Improvement Area, City of Seattle and / or any other parties involved, DO NOT assume responsibility for injury to persons, or loss or damage to any property of the vendors, including theft.

Other Restrictions:

- Information distribution, promotional give-a-ways, and selling of goods may only take place at your specified booth space. Roaming with the intent of promoting or selling merchandise is NOT allowed unless authorized by the CIDBIA.
- No alcoholic beverages, pets, loud music, balloons, or television unless authorized by CIDBIA event staff.
- The CIDBIA reserves the right to remove any work it does not consider suitable for a general audience of adults and children.
- The CIDBIA will remove from the Festival, anyone failing to cooperate with the officials or comply with the rules and policy.

I/We undersigned participants of the Chinatown-International District Summer Festival, July 11 & 12, 2009:

Hereby for myself, my heirs, administrators and assigns, waive and release any and all right and claim for damages I/we have against the Chinatown-International District Business Improvement Area, City of Seattle or any organization or individual connected with this event, their representatives, successors and assigns for any and all damages, losses, thefts or injuries which I/we suffer while taking part in any activities linked to this event.
